[a] 48 Leopard C2 Tanks were declared surplus in 2003, reducing the fleet to 66.

[b] In previous years we have reported all M113 class vehicles under one line item. This year, we have separated them out. In addition, it should be noted that the numbers for the M113 are decreasing yearly as vehicles in the M113 A2 class are being pulled from service to feed the production line of the M113 Life Extension Project. Information on this project can be found at the following web sites: http://www.cds.forces.gc.ca/pubs/anrpt2003/annexc_e.asp and http://www.cds.forces.gc.ca/pubs/anrpt2003/annexc_f.asp (French).

[c] One CF-5 A&B Freedom Fighter was donated to a Canadian museum in 2003.

[d] As of 1 September 2004, the Canadian Forces were in the process of the decommissioning and disposal of HMCS Huron, thereby reducing the number of Guided Missile Destroyers to three.
